

YOUNGSTOWN CULTURAL ARTS CENTER RENTAL POLICIES

COVID SAFETY

As of October 25, 2021, DNDA will comply with the Governor's orders and require vaccination verification or a 72-hour negative PCR test for individuals 12 years of age and older, for events happening at Youngstown Cultural Arts Center.

Renters will be required to assign a COVID Safety Monitor to verify guests at the entrance of their event /gathering and report to the Youngstown Manager, with no exceptions. Learn more about the mandate at <https://kingcounty.gov/depts/health/covid-19/current-guidance/verify.aspx>.

Any guest who is not able to furnish proof of vaccination or a 72-hour negative COVID test result is not permitted to enter the event, and will be asked to vacate.

Youngstown requires guests to use 6-foot physical distancing where possible, and to be masked in Youngstown common areas, vaccinated or not. We recommend washing and sanitizing hands often, sanitizing surfaces, and ventilating your rental space(s) during your stay.

We ask that any persons feeling ill, showing COVID symptoms, or persons who've been in contact with a COVID-infected person please avoid gathering at Youngstown. Per the mandate, we require contact-tracing at events, and require any concerns be reported to the Youngstown Manager immediately.

ACCESSIBILITY

The Youngstown Cultural Arts Center is fully ADA-accessible, including ramping and elevators for people with special mobility needs.

ADMISSIONS TAX/LICENCES

Renter is responsible for obtaining any and all necessary performing rights and licenses prior to the event when required; this includes ASCAP and BMI music licensing for any music used, be it specific or incidental to the event.

Renter is responsible for paying City of Seattle Admission Tax for public performances. Contact the Seattle Department of Finance at (206) 684-8412. Seattle Municipal Code 5.40.020 requires an admissions tax be levied and imposed on every individual admitted to any event for which there is a charge for admission, whether or not that person has paid for admission, and that such admissions tax be remitted to the City of Seattle. Certain non-profit Arts or Human Services organizations may be exempt from the collection of admissions tax after receiving an exemption from the Seattle License and Tax Enforcement Office (206-684-8484). Renter certifies to Youngstown Cultural Arts Center that 1) they collect and remit admissions tax per SMC 5.40.020 or 2) have received an exemption from the City of Seattle. Renter furthermore indemnifies and holds Youngstown Cultural Arts Center harmless from Renter's responsibility of collecting and remitting admissions tax as required by law.

ALCOHOL

The distribution or sale of alcohol is solely the responsibility of the Renter and Youngstown Cultural Arts Center is not liable for any events or instances resulting from the availability or consumption of alcohol.

The Youngstown Cultural Arts Center requires that any user dispensing of alcoholic beverages comply with the regulations of the Washington State Liquor Control Board. The service of hard liquor must be approved by Youngstown Cultural Arts Center in writing two weeks in advance of the event, and Youngstown Cultural Arts Center may require security guards and/or additional event managers at the expense of the Renter. The Damage Deposit for events involving alcohol is $500, as opposed to the standard $300.

Youngstown Cultural Arts Center requires a Banquet Permit for all private events servicing alcoholic beverages, and a Liquor License or Special Occasion License when selling alcoholic beverages. Securing banquet/liquor permits is the sole responsibility of the Renter. Approval of rental will be granted once a copy of the permit is received by Youngstown Manager two weeks prior to event.

One copy of the permit will be kept on file, and one copy must be posted on door at event. Any event where alcohol is served requires a Youngstown staff member to be present during the entire event. Youngstown Cultural Arts Center reserves the right to deny use of alcohol for any reason. Liquor and Cannabis Board: www/lcb.wa.gov.

CATERING

Renter may select the caterer of their choice. Renter and/or their caterers are responsible for bringing any items needed for food service. The Youngstown Cultural Arts Center does not provide equipment or serving utensils.

CLEANING

Please ask your House Manager for assistance. All items brought to the cultural center by the Renter must be removed post-event, including all decorations. Approval must be given by the Youngstown Manager or Director for leaving any equipment.

Vacuums, brooms and other cleaning supplies will be made available to Renters to return the spaces to their original condition. Any special cleaning required after an event (for example, excessive spillage, staining on rugs and floors) will be charged to the Renter.

For events where food and beverages are served, and/or at the discretion of the Youngstown Manager or Director, a janitorial fee will be required as part of the rental agreement.

Any failure to comply with basic set-up and clean-up policies may result in the loss of the damage deposit, and additional charges.

Renter is required to clean and sanitize surfaces and high-touch areas (e.g. doorknobs, handles, microphones, etc.) after use / post-event.

DAMAGES

Renter is responsible for all damage to property and equipment caused by its agents or patrons. Such damage is inclusive of the physical facility, equipment therein, the exterior of the building, the sidewalks surrounding the building, and any other merchandise or goods inside the building.
